Tuesday

U. S. Space & Rocket Center

Your visit to the U.S. Space & Rocket Center will include access to historic Shuttle Park, Rocket Park, and all indoor exhibit areas such as the main museum atrium and the Davidson Center for Space Exploration. Enjoy daily guided tours of the Saturn V Hall, featured traveling exhibitions, hands-on demonstrations and presentations, and museum simulators.

Tour the Saturn V Hall, mockups of two International Space Station modules, or see the Huntsville Operations Support Center, Space Station Development Laboratory, and the historic Redstone Test Stand on the Marshall Space Flight Center Bus Tour.

In celebration of the 50th anniversary of Apollo 11, the world-premiere exhibition, "Apollo: When We Went to the Moon", chronicles the timeline from the beginning of the Space Race – a time when the U.S. and Soviet Union competed over their accomplishments in space exploration – to the collaborative culture of the International Space Station program and beyond.

Wednesday

Rock City

Rock City will amaze you. Located atop Lookout Mountain, Rock City is a true marvel of nature featuring massive ancient rock formations, gardens with over 400 native plant species, and breathtaking "See 7 States" panoramic views.

Take an unforgettable journey along the Enchanted Trail where each step reveals natural beauty and wonders along the woodland path. Experience the magic of Fairyland Caverns and Mother Goose Village.

The thrill of riding "America's Most Amazing Mile" has delighted guests for over a century. The Incline Railway up historic Lookout Mountain is the world's steepest passenger railway. In operation since 1895, the Incline is a National Historic site and Mechanical Engineering Landmark.

Ruby Falls

Ruby Falls is the nation's tallest and deepest underground waterfall open to the public in the U.S. Every day hundreds of gallons of water rush over the falls by the minute and amaze visitors. In 1928, Leo Lambert and a team of excavators found a breathtaking waterfall located over 1,120 feet below the surface of Lookout Mountain. Lambert named the falls after his wife, Ruby, and opened the area as a public attraction in 1930.

Thursday

World of Coca Cola Museum

There's plenty to see and do at World of Coca-Cola. You can visit the vault where our legendary secret formula for Coca-Cola is secured and taste 100+ beverages from around the world. You may even meet the Coca-Cola Polar Bear.

Regarded as the most closely guarded and best-kept secret, the secret formula for Coca-Cola represents over 125 years of history, special moments, memories and the timeless appeal associated with Coca-Cola. Now you can get closer to the famous secret formula than ever before!

Stone Mountain Park

Rising 1,686 feet above sea level, Stone Mountain is a quartz monzonite dome monadnock, nearly 4 times as tall as Enchanted Rock in Texas.

A trip on the Summit Skyride, a high-speed Swiss cable car, provides a stunning view of the Confederate Memorial Carving as it transports guests more than 825 feet above ground to the top of Stone Mountain. From the top, experience amazing views of the Atlanta skyline, the Appalachian Mountains and more up to 60 miles away.

Discovering Stone Mountain Museum is an excellent resource in discovering how Stone Mountain has been many things to many people and features artifacts and stories that span 12,000 years.

The Scenic Railroad is a full-size locomotive from the 1940s. Enjoy a lively five-mile excursion around the mountain in open-air cars while you marvel at beautiful views of Stone Mountain and the surrounding landscape.

Friday

The French Quarter

The French Quarter is New Orleans' oldest and most-visited neighborhood. Wrought-iron balconies on Spanish-inspired buildings make up the city's most iconic visages, and the tastes, sounds, and smells of the Quarter are unique to the city. Roam through Jackson Square, tour St. Louis Cathedral or stop of beignets and coffee at the Café du Monde.

Spend sometime ahead of your trip to plan the sights and sounds you want to experience in the French Quarter.
