A PROCLAMATION AUTHORIZING RECOGNITION OF MAY 1 – 7, 2022 AS HURRICANE PREPAREDNESS WEEK

WHEREAS, Lee County is a political subdivision of the State; and,

WHEREAS, Lee County is committed to supporting a strong framework resiliency through preparedness when responding to natural, technological, and/or human-caused emergencies, incidents, or disasters; and,

WHEREAS, "Hurricane Preparedness Week" creates an opportunity for the residents and businesses in Lee County to prepare their homes, establishments, and communities for the upcoming hurricane season; and,

WHEREAS, investing in individual, family, business, and community preparedness can reduce fatalities and economic devastation across our nation, state, and County; and,

WHEREAS, emergency preparedness is the responsibility of every resident of Lee County and all residents are encouraged to make preparedness a priority; and,

WHEREAS, preparedness is an on-going effort of all residents in Lee County, including youth, older adults, and people with access and functional needs; and,

WHEREAS, the Lee County Commissioners Court, along with other regional, state, and national partners support the WarnCentralTexas.org campaign to increase public readiness in preparing for hurricanes and other emergencies and educating residents on how to take action during emergencies; and

WHEREAS, the Lee County Commissioners Court encourages all residents to participate in preparedness activities and to review preparedness information and to sign up to receive emergency alerts on the WarnCentralTexas.org website;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that, the Lee County Commissioners Court hereby declares May 1 – 7, 2022, as CAPCOG Hurricane Preparedness Week and encourages all residents and businesses to develop their own emergency preparedness plan, go to WarnCentralTexas.org to register to receive emergency alerts, and work as a team towards that end.

Resolution adopted by the Lee County Commissioners Court this 25 April, 2022.
